Termination of Designation of Kuwait Under Temporary Protected Status Program

AGENCY: Immigration and Naturalization Service, Justice.

ACTION: Notice of Termination of Designation of Kuwait Under Temporary Protected Status Program.

SUMMARY: Under section 244A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended (8 U.S.C. 1254a) (the "Act"), the Attorney General is authorized to grant Temporary Protected Status in the United States to eligible nationals of designated foreign states (or parts thereof) upon a finding that such foreign states are experiencing ongoing civil strife, environmental disaster, or certain other extraordinary and temporary conditions. Pursuant to section 244A(b) of the Act, the designation of Kuwait became effective on March 27, 1991, to remain in effect for 12 months from that date. Attorney General Order No. 1484-91, 50 FR 12745. Section 244A(b)(3) of the Act requires the Attorney General at least 60 days before the end of the initial period of designation to review the conditions in a Temporary Protected Status designated state after consultation with appropriate agencies of the United States Government. In this order, the Attorney General, pursuant to section 244A(b)(3), determines that conditions in Kuwait no longer meet the standards for designation under the Temporary Protected Status program, and therefore gives notice that the designation of Kuwait will terminate on March 27, 1992.

EFFECTIVE DATES: The termination of Temporary Protected Status designation for Kuwait is effective March 27, 1992.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Janet Charney, Senior Immigration Examiner, Immigration & Naturalization Service, 425 I Street, NW., room 5250, Washington, DC 20536, telephone (202) 514-5014.

Notice of Termination of Temporary Protected Status Designation for Kuwait

By the authority vested in me under section 244A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended, and as Attorney General, I find after consultation with the appropriate agencies of the United States Government, that the extraordinary and temporary conditions found to exist in Kuwait on March 27, 1991, are not presently in existence, in that substantial progress has been made toward the rebuilding of Kuwait society so that the temporary impediments to safe return posed on March 27, 1991, by the immediate aftermath of the Iraqi occupation and the subsequent military conflict no longer remain.

Accordingly, it is ordered that the designation of Kuwait for temporary protected status is terminated effective as indicated above.

Dated: January 20, 1992.

William P. Barr,
Attorney General.

Extension of Designation of Lebanon Under Temporary Protected Status Program

AGENCY: Immigration and Naturalization Service, Justice.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Under section 244A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended (8 U.S.C. 1254a) (the "Act"), the Attorney General is authorized to grant Temporary Protected Status in the United States to eligible nationals of designated foreign states (or parts thereof) upon a finding that such foreign states are experiencing ongoing civil strife, environmental disaster, or certain other extraordinary and temporary conditions. Under section 304(b)(1) of the Miscellaneous and Technical Immigration and Naturalization Amendments of 1991, Public Law 102-232, 105 Stat. 1733, December 12, 1991 ("the Technical Amendments"), an alien having no nationality is also eligible for benefits under the Temporary Protected Status Program if he or she last habitually resided in a designated state. On March 27, 1991, the Attorney General designated Lebanon for Temporary Protected Status for a period of 12 months. Order No. 1485-91, 50 FR 12746. This notice extends the designation of Lebanon under the Temporary Protected Status program for an additional 12 months, in accordance with section 244A(b)(3) (A) and (C) of the Act.

This notice also makes clear that eligibility for Temporary Protected Status is granted not only to nationals of Lebanon but also to persons having no nationality who last habitually resided in Lebanon, and provides a special additional 6 month registration period for aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Lebanon, who have continuously resided and been continuously present in the United States since March 27, 1991, and who have not applied for Temporary Protected Status during the original period of designation. This special registration period is provided in recognition of the fact that aliens having no nationality were ineligible for Temporary Protected Status prior to the effective date of the Technical Amendments, and therefore were unable to apply for such status during most of the original period of designation.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This designation is effective on March 28, 1992, and will remain in effect until March 28, 1993.

Notice of Extension of Designation of Lebanon Under Temporary Protected Status Program

By the authority vested in me as Attorney General under section 244A of the Act, and pursuant to section 244A (b)(3) (A) and (C) of the Act, I find that there still exist extraordinary and temporary conditions in Lebanon that prevent aliens who are nationals of Lebanon, and aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Lebanon, from returning to Lebanon in safety, as a result of the continued armed conflict in that nation. The Attorney General further finds that permitting nationals of Lebanon, and aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Lebanon, to remain temporarily in the United States is not contrary to the national interest of the United States. Accordingly, it is ordered as follows:

(1) The designation of Lebanon under section 244A(b) of the Act is extended for an additional 12 month period from March 28, 1992, to March 28, 1993.

(2) I estimate that there are no more than 7500 Lebanese nationals, and aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Lebanon, who are currently in nonimmigrant or unlawful status, eligible for Temporary Protected Status.

(3) Except as specifically provided in this notice, an application for Temporary Protected Status during the extended period of designation provided by this notice must be filed pursuant to the provisions of 8 CFR part 240.

(4) A national of Lebanon, or an alien having no nationality who last habitually resided in Lebanon, who was granted Temporary Protected Status during the 12-month period of designation that began on March 27, 1991, must file a new Application for Temporary Protected Status, Form I-821, together with an Application for Employment Authorization, Form I-765, within the thirty (30) day period prior to the one-year anniversary of the original grant of Temporary Protected Status to such alien in order to be eligible for Temporary Protected Status during the period between such anniversary and March 28, 1993.

(5) An Application for Temporary Protected Status, Form I-821, filed during the period of extended designation by a national of Lebanon, or an alien having no nationality who last habitually resided in Lebanon, who has been granted Temporary Protected Status during the 12-month period of designation that began on March 27, 1991, will be without fee.

(6) Any alien having no nationality who last habitually resided in Lebanon, who has been continuously physically present and has continuously resided in the United States since March 27, 1991, and who did not apply for Temporary Protected Status within the 12-month period of designation that began on March 27, 1991, may apply for Temporary Protected Status at any time during the special registration period from March 28, 1992, to September 28, 1992, by filing an Application for Temporary Protected Status, Form I-821, together with an Application for Employment Authorization, Form I-765.

(7) A fee of fifty dollars ($50.00) will be charged for each Application for Temporary Protected Status, Form I-821, filed during the special registration period by an alien who is eligible for registration during that period.

(8) The fee prescribed in 8 CFR 103.7(b)(1) will be charged for each Application for Employment Authorization, Form I-765, filed by an alien requesting employment authorization pursuant to the provision of paragraph (4) or of paragraph (6) of this notice. An alien who does not request employment authorization must file Form I-765 together with Form I-821 for information purposes, but in such cases Form I-765 will be without fee.

(9) Pursuant to section 244A(b)(3) of the Act, the designation of Lebanon under the Temporary Protected Status Program shall be reviewed again at least 60 days before the end of this extended period of designation, and of any subsequent extended period of designation, to determine whether the conditions for such designation continue to exist. Notice of each such determination, including the basis for the determination, shall be published in the Federal Register.

(10) Information concerning Temporary Protected Status for nationals of Lebanon, and aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Lebanon, will be available at local Immigration and Naturalization Service offices upon publication of this notice.

Dated: January 20, 1992.

Attorney General.
